

Die Jovis, 29. Febr. 1643.

IT is this day Ordered by the Commons Assembled in Parliament, That no VVool whatsoever, under what pretence soever shall be transported without particular leave and license of this House, upon paine of forfeiture of the VVools, and sequestering the Estates of such, as shall indeavour the transportation thereof, and particularly that the VVool now upon the River of Thames ready to be transported be staid, and the Commissioners of the Customes are required to take care herein, and to take care that the like care be taken in all out Ports and Creeks, and that they certifie this House to morrow what VVoolls have been transported, and by what license, and what woolls lie now ready in any Port or Creek to be transported. Mr. Ash, Mr. Spurstoe, and Mr. Bedingfield, are appointed to acquaint the Commissioners of the Customes with this Order, and to take care, that it be duly put in Execution.

H: Elsynge, Cler. Parl. D. Com.